SECOND COLLECTION THIS WEEKEND

Our Second Collection this Sea Sunday is for Stella Maris (the Apostleship of the Sea), the Catholic Church's maritime charity. Seafarers lead hard and dangerous lives.

This Sea Sunday your gifts and prayers will help seafarers and fishers get the support they need.

Stella Maris chaplains and volunteers are working in ports up and down this country, and across the world: but they cannot do it without your support. If you would like to give a gift to this collection, you can donate HERE

AN INVITATION

Fr John has been asking us for some time to pray and reflect on how we as a parish may serve others, whilst our Pastoral Council has been in 'pause' mode.

Chris Bryden

(parishioner & member of the diocesan Spirituality Team)

has very kindly offered to lead us in a time of guided reflection,

It will take place here at St Joseph's on Thursday 14 July at 4pm, in the Church and will last about an hour and a quarter.

It follows on naturally from the sharing we undertook as part of the Synod consultation.

If you already serve the parish in any way or wish to do so in the future, or you simply love our parish and want it to flourish, please do join us.

DEAR BROTHERS AND SISTERS,

As you now know, Bishop Philip has decided to bless us with a new Parish Priest as from September 2022.

His name is Fr Ansel D'Mello, who comes to us from Rome where he has been studying for the past year.

Ansel's reputation goes before him as someone who notably loves God, and God's people. Thus, I am sure he will be very happy here at St Joseph's.

My role, for the moment, will be to assist Ansel in any way I can.

This is an exciting opportunity for both parish communities, and I am really pleased to still be around to see the new chapter begin.

I give thanks to God for the innumerable blessings I have received these past four years.

To each one of you I am grateful, for allowing me to become part of the family during this time.

I will not forget you.

God bless you all.

John
